Dear Mr. [REDACTED]

We accepted your offer in compromise signed and dated by you on 08/23/2022 and as modified by an addendum or amended Form 656, Offer in Compromise, dated 08/07/2023. The date of acceptance is the date of this letter, and our acceptance is subject to the terms and conditions on the enclosed Form 656, Offer in Compromise.

We applied a total of $430.00 as payment toward the accepted offer amount listed on the enclosed Form 656, Offer in Compromise. We received the last payment on 08/16/2023 for $160.00.

The IRS will not offset refunds and credits to the tax years you listed on Form 656. If applicable, we may issue any refund or credit you're entitled to after the acceptance date of this offer. If you want your refund or credit applied to your offer amount or liability, instead of issued to you, you must call the telephone number shown at the bottom of this letter. We'll apply any refunds or credits preceding the offer acceptance date to your liability, not to your accepted offer amount.

If we filed a Notice of Federal Tax Lien on your account, we'll release it when you pay the offer amount in full. If you pay the final payment with a credit or debit card, we cannot release the Notice of Federal Tax Lien for up to 120 days from the date of the credit or debit payment.

The offer conditions require you to follow all internal revenue law provisions for five years, beginning from the date of this letter. During this period, which includes any extensions, you must timely file all required tax returns and pay all required taxes.

If you're required to make payments under this agreement, make your check or money order payable to the United States Treasury. Include your name, taxpayer identification number, address, and the tax periods covered by this agreement on your payment and send it to:

IRS - OIC
P.O. Box 219982
Kansas City, MO 64121

Promptly notify the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) of any marital status or address change so we can advise you of your offer status.
